Göta studentkår's foundational values

Our foundational values are our shared most basic values. This values are uniting all members. Individuals or organizations that does not share these values cannot belong or co-operate with Göta studentkår.

The foundational values of Göta studentkår is a vital document that guides us in our operations. It is composed by five leading stars that are describing our common and foundational values and describes how we wish to be viewed.

Equality

Göta studentkår rests on a solid belief in democracy and views all individuals as beings of equal values. We treat everyone as fellow humans no matter your gender, gender identity, disability, sexual identity, age, language, and socio-economic background. No matter your position or status within the organization, members withhold the right to be seen and heard. Göta studentkår respects differences and sees opportunities with diversity.

Respect

As a democratic organization where everyone is seen as equal, we treat everyone with respect. We assume to be met with the same treatment. We respect and follow Swedish law and the University of Gothenburg's rules (despite that we in some cases wish to change these).

Openness

We create venues for dialogue and are open and inclusive for all students. We encourage new ideas and collaboration and welcome new engaged members as a resource. The organizations decisions and ongoing operations shall be transparent for members and engaged individuals.

Trust

Within Göta studentkår we trust one another, and have faith in that everyone within the organization always does their best with consideration to their situation and capabilities. Göta studentkår is an organization with legitimacy, we hold our promises and always support our members.

Solidarity

Göta studentkår is pervaded by a sense of solidarity with those members and students we represent. We take care of one another and always make sure that each other's well-being are a first priority. Within the organization we are united in the conviction of that all students have the right to affect their education and a safe and adequate time of study.
