Assignment description for Section board member with labour market responsibilities

Background

Göta studentkår represents four faculties through its four sections. Each section has a board with a Section Chairperson, who leads the operation.

Purpose

Assignment descriptions for section board members shall be used as a tool to explicate what the assignment aims to accomplish as well as which tasks are included in the assignment. Section specific tasks can be added. The assignment description shall be seen as a complement to Göta studentkår's bylaws, Göta studentkår's rules of procedure for section boards, and other governing documents.

The purpose of the section board is to lead the work within the section. The members of the section board each have distinct areas of responsibility, which together advance the section's operations and contribute to an improved study experience for its students. The section board member with labour market responsibilities works with labour market engagements at the section.

Overall responsibility

Section board members are required to participate in section board meetings where elections, decisions, and discussions regarding the section take place. Board members should participate in the section's operations to the best of their ability. Board members of the section shall, when needed, also be adjuvant at Göta studentkår's membership recruitment activities.

Organization and authority

Section board members are trustees of Götastudentkår's Representative Assembly. Members of the section board jointly decide on the operations of the section.

Labour market responsibilities

The section board has the task of supporting students with labour market issues at the section. The section board member with labour market responsibilities works to facilitate the transition of students from studies to the workforce.

Tasks related to labour market responsibilities:

- › Support the sections overarching labour market operations
- › Plan and participate in the section's labour market fair
- › Be responsible for appointing a labour market working group for the section's labour market
- › Plan and participate in labour market activities at the section
- › Promote the possibility for students to get in contact with future employers
- › Support the section associations in labour market-related questions and activities
- › Ensure the dissemination of information regarding the section's labour market activities, together with the section board communicator

The assignment description shall be updated by the current Union Presidium prior to the opening of nominations for elected positions each spring term and shall be made available when the nomination period opens.
