Göta studentkår's phadder contract

Göta studentkår's kick-off is intended for students beginning their studies at one of the faculties represented by Göta studentkår at the University of Gothenburg. The purpose of the kick-off is to give new students a positive start to their studies and provide them with good conditions to thrive and develop during their time at university.

As a new student, it is important to have a person or group of people to turn to. These individuals organize the kick-off in the name of Göta studentkår and help create student communities and meeting places where new students can get to know each other.

Göta studentkår's phadder contract applies throughout the entire kick-off period, including outside of the official kick-off times up until the day after the last event of the kick-off.

Purpose

The purpose of Göta studentkår's phadder contract is to ensure that all phaddrar are aware of the rights and obligations that apply during the kick-off period. In the event of a breach of this contract, the contract may be revoked and the phadder may be suspended from their duties.

In case of breach of the contract

In accordance with Göta studentkår's kick-off policy, the section board has the right to suspend a phadder if they do not follow Göta studentkår's governing documents and the kick-off contract signed when they accept their assignment. The decision on suspension shall be reported to the union board.

If the breach is deemed severe, a phadder may be deprived of the opportunity to participate in future kick-offs. The decision on suspension shall be reported to the union board. In case the suspension lasts longer than the current kick-off, the union board shall
